Course Format:

This course uses a variety of teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, experiential exercises, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The classroom provides you with a place where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in class discussions and take responsibility for your own learning. Be a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our classes will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you have a tendency to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the classroom as you work towards your goal.

Appendix 1 Assignment Outlines

Please Note: All assignments, tests, and final exam must be completed in order to pass this course.

Daily Tests

Due Date: Each class from classes 1 through 10.

Weight: 25%

Students will be expected to have read the assigned chapters in the text and other assigned readings and be prepared to write a graded test based on these reading assignments.

Assignment 1: Developing Positive Relationships with Families

Due Date: Class 4

Weight: 10%

Teachers of students with exceptional needs need to work collaboratively with family members of the students. A positive working relationship improves the educational experience for students with exceptional needs. For this assignment, you are to list barriers that may prevent collaborating with families, such as: cultural differences; language differences; logistical difficulties; negative perceptions of school, etc. For each of the barriers you've listed, provide strategies to build positive partnerships with families.

Students will be assessed using the attached Written Activity Rubric.

Writing Assignment Expectations:

- Objective: The objective of this writing assignment is to critically apply concepts, ideas, and procedures to facilitate higher level learning. The assignments are designed so students can demonstrate the depth of knowledge related to the course content.

- Focus: This assignment is designed to apply knowledge from the chapters and class discussions.

Format: This assignment should be typed and does not need to be in an essay format. Do not include title pages. Include your name at the top of each page. A minimum of one inch margins on each side. 12 point Times New Roman font is preferred. Your assignment should have a minimum length of 750 words but is not to exceed 1000 words.

Leading Discussion Assignment

Due date: To be announced

Weight: 10%

There are 9 videos developed by Alberta Education at education.alberta.ca/admin/supportingstudentn/inclusiveedvideoserries/

The videos are meant to focus discussion on how to support students with special needs. Depending on the number of students in the class, students will be assigned as discussion leaders for each video. All videos should be viewed by the class and discussed. Each student discussion leader will be prepared to expand the understanding of the students on the video topic. Each video has a conversation guide that will be provided by the facilitator. Each student will be individually evaluated according to the Oral Presentation Rubric attached

Support Skills – Prompts

Due Date: Class 8

Weight: 25%

One of the key methods in supporting students with exceptionalities to reach their goals is to use prompts. Prompts are developed on a hierarchy starting with prompts that provide a great deal of support and leading to little or no support prompts.

You have explored various kinds of exceptional learners, including those with learning, behavior, intellectual, communication, and physical exceptionalities who have many goals to reach. Select one of the exceptionalities and one goal that the student with that exceptionality is working on achieving.

1. In your paper, identify the exceptionality and the goal the student is working on achieving.
2. Develop a list of prompts you think will work according to the hierarchy listed below.

You will be evaluated according to the appended Support Skills Rubric.

Hierarchy of Prompts

Typical prompt hierarchy consists of:

- (I) Independent – natural cue or stimulus (e.g. bell rings to indicate recess)
- (G) Gestural prompt – a gesture or demonstration that provides information regarding the nature of The required response (e.g. head shake to indicate disapproval)
- (IV) Indirect verbal prompt – the use of words to imply that some behavior needs to occur (e.g. Where do you need to go to next?)
- (V) Direct verbal prompt – clearly states the necessary behavior (verbal or some alternative mode of communication)
- (M) Model – a visual or physical demonstration that shows the correct completion of the activity or task and encourages imitation..
- (MP) Minimal physical prompt – light physical contact to guide a student toward a behavior
- (PP) Partial physical prompt – the student is physically started in the desired behavior, but is released to complete the behavior
- (F) Full physical prompt – the student is taken entirely through correct completion of the activity or task.

Final Reflection/Project

Due Date: Class 10

Weight: 30%
