Fundamentals of Effective Interpersonal Communication (COMM115)

Lecture 1

Course Outline

Semester Dates: September 9, 2019 to October 12, 2019

Please note that when a holiday falls during the week, your class will be rescheduled for the Friday of that week. Students are required to make arrangements to be present at the rescheduled class.

Facilitator: Sage McIntosh

Email: sage.mcintosh@columbia.ca

Class Time: 5:30 PM - 9:30 PM Tuesday

Room: 805-119

8:30AM to 12:30PM Saturday

Credit: 3

Prerequisite: None

Note: It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the information contained in the Course Outline and to clarify any areas of concern with the facilitator.

Course Description:

Successful, healthy, and productive Interpersonal relationships form the foundation of human services work. This course focuses on building self-awareness, the communication process, and the development of professional communication skills.

Learning Outcomes:

As a result of active participation in these sessions, a student can expect to:

- Explore and evaluate the role of effective communication in establishing and maintaining effective interpersonal relationships.
- Explain how the self develops and apply this information to how you would work with others and how the behavior of others is influenced by the development of the self.
- Demonstrate how to assist oneself and others to improve self-concept.
- Identify personal communication style and develop an awareness of the importance of value clarification in communication.
- Demonstrate the application of the principles of verbal and non-verbal communication to real-life situations and case studies.
- Employ the three-part process of perception to the making of meaning and its application to communication behavior.
- Synthesize the information on how the communication of emotion directly and indirectly impacts the ability to foster individual growth and the quality of relationships and apply its principles to communication effectiveness.
- Explore how the verbal dimension of communication reflects cultural values and perspectives and impacts on communication with Canadian society.

Course Format:

This course uses a variety of teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, experiential exercises, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The classroom provides you with a place where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in class discussions and take responsibility for your own learning. Be a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our classes will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you have a tendency to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the classroom as you work towards your goal.

Required Textbooks and Equipment:

Wood, J. & Schweitzer, A. (2016). Everyday encounters: An introduction to interpersonal Communication, (5th ed.). Toronto, ON: Nelson Thomson Learning.

Instructor hand-outs.

Recommended Readings and Resources:

Students may access Google Scholar.

Homework Assignment Due for the First Class:

- Read Chapters 1 and 2 in the text, Everyday encounters: An introduction to interpersonal communications.
- Read this course outline and prepare to discuss in class.
- Prepare to write a test on the assigned reading.

Evaluation - Assessment of Student Performance:

The final grade in the course will be based on the following elements. Wherever possible facilitators will use rubrics to assess your performance and offer feedback.

Title of Assignment/Examination	Due Date	Weight
Daily Tests; at the start of each class	Classes 1 through 10	25%
Personal Reflective Paper	Class 7	25%
Group Communication Presentation	Class 10	25%
Final Reflective Project (on Presentation)	Class 10	25%

Please note that all homework and assignments are due at the beginning of each class.

Grading:

Grades for each component will be added together at the end of the semester. The final total will be translated to the Columbia College's 4.0 grading scale as follows:

Marking and Grading Conversion:

Description	Letter Grade	Grade Points	Percentage Scale
Excellent	A+	4.0	100	95
	A	4.0	94	90
	A-	3.7	89	85
Good	B+	3.3	84	80
	B	3.0	79	75
	B-	2.7	74	70
Satisfactory	C+	2.3	69	65
	C	2.0	64	60
	C-	1.7	59	55
Poor	D	1.0	54	50
Failure	F	0.0	49	0

Please note that to pass this course you must earn at least a "D" (a minimal pass).

Submission and Completion of Assignments:

You are expected to submit assignments by the due date. Any late assignments may be assessed a marking penalty of 5% per day. If you are unable to submit an assignment on the due date, you must request an extension before the due date by filling out an Application for Assignment Extension form (SSPP-F012) that is to be submitted to the Department Chair for approval. This form is available on Columbia's website, Bldg. 802 – Main Office and from Department Chairs.

Attendance Requirements:

Columbia College believes that student are committed to their program and learning experiences. However, it is understood that there are times when students may be absent. Any absences can be viewed as a potentially serious disruption of the learning process and necessary achievement of the learning objectives. Being late is also considered unacceptable as it interferes with the learning opportunities of others. Unavoidable absences or lateness must be reported to the course facilitator in advance. Please refer to Columbia College's Attendance Policy and Regulations (ADM-P151) for detailed information on Attendance Requirements.

Academic Integrity:

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from Columbia College.

There is no tolerance for academic dishonesty and any student caught plagiarizing is subject to serious sanctions as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct Policy (ADM-P229). Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with this policy and avoid any behavior that could possibly be seen as cheating, plagiarizing, misrepresenting, or putting into question the integrity of one's academic work.

Student Conduct:

It is the responsibility of each student to uphold the expectations and responsibilities outlined in the Student Code of Conduct Policy (ADM-P229), Columbia's Commitment to Human Rights and Diversity Policy (ADM-P029), and any additional requirements established by your program.

Generally, each student will:

- be respectful and courteous toward others;
- demonstrate appropriate and supportive communication skills, and coach, assist, advise and otherwise support other students in their studies;
- manage any personal stress and conflict in a positive and resourceful manner, and assist others to do the same;
- be dressed in a manner appropriate for their workplace or learning environment, as established by the program;
- conduct themselves in a professional manner with regard to their communication with others and their behavior in class;
- conduct themselves with academic integrity in all of their learning activities, tests, exams, and assignments
- keep up with day-to-day classroom and course expectations.

Important Dates:

Description

Last to add/drop courses

Last day to withdraw without academic penalty

Date

5 school operating days from the start of the semester
OR before the third scheduled class, whichever is greater

50% or less of the semester has been completed

Appeals:

Please refer to the Student Appeal Policy (ADM-P177).

Students with Temporary or Permanent Disabilities or Medical Conditions:

Students with temporary or permanent disabilities or medical conditions may apply for accommodations. To be considered for an accommodation, a student must register with Columbia College's Accessibility Services by making an appointment with an Accessibility Services Advisor – Main Office – Bldg. 802 or emailing accessibilityservices@columbia.ab.ca. The Department Chair or facilitator is not able to provide you with any accommodations without you taking this step. Please refer to Columbia College's website to review the Student Accommodation Policy (ADM-P188) and the Student Guide to Accessibility Services Handbook (SSCM-001).

Student Support:

Students should be aware that Life Coaching, Career and Accessibility Services, and Student Support Services (i.e. tutoring, academic strategists, etc.) are provided by Columbia College. Inquire how to request these services at the Main Office in building 802. It is the student's responsibility to discuss their specific learning needs with the appropriate service provider.

Class Schedule/Overview:

Please note that this schedule is subject to change. Any changes or cancellations will be emailed to you. It is your responsibility to check the email address you have given to the school on a daily basis for any messages from the Department Chair/designate, facilitator or College Administration. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the information contained in the Course Outline and to clarify any areas of concern with the facilitator.

Appendix 1 Assignment Outlines

Please note: Students must complete all assignments, tests, and final projects in order to pass this course.

Daily Tests

Due Date: Each class from classes 1 through 10.

Weight: 25%

Students will be expected to read the assigned chapters in the text and other assigned readings and be prepared to write a graded test based on these reading assignments.

Reflective Paper

Due Date: Class 7

Length: Minimum 500 words- Maximum 1000 words

Weight: 25%

Each student will write a personal response reflective paper that investigates and identifies the essential ingredients in communicating successfully as a professional. Introspective means self-awareness and self-examination, being aware of your own perceptions, thoughts and feelings. This is a personal paper that requires self-reflection. The assignment will be marked using the Short Answer Writing Response Marking Rubric contained in this course outline. You may write this paper in the first person.

Your reflective paper must address the following areas:

- What different forms of communication occur in your role as a professional? How do you build trust?
- What communication skills are needed to develop a professional relationship between clients, families and colleagues?
- What are the communication hurdles? How would you address them (i.e., personal stories and research)?
- What insights do you now have in regards to your own communication style and the style of others?
- What insights do you now have in regards to how your perceptions, fears and judgment influence how you communicate?

Writing Assignment Expectations:

- Objective: The objectives of the writing assignment is to critically apply concepts, ideas, and procedures to facilitate higher level learning. The assignment is designed so students can demonstrate depth of knowledge related to the course content.
- Focus: Each assignment is designed to apply knowledge from the chapters and class discussions.
- Format: All assignments will be double-spaced. Do not include title pages. Include your name at the top of each page. A minimum of one-inch margins on each side. 12-point Times New Roman font is preferred. Each assignment should have a minimum length of 500 words but is not to exceed 1000 words. Students will be evaluated according to the attached rubric: Short Answer Writing Response Marking Rubric.

How to avoid plagiarism

The simplest way to avoid plagiarism is to reference any sources properly (using both in-text, parenthetical citations in the body of your assignment and a 'References' page at the end). While it is commonplace to build upon the knowledge of others, it is necessary to clearly state the sources and foundations of that knowledge.

Group Communication Presentation

Due Date: Class 10

Length: 10 – 15 minutes

Weight: 25%

In groups, participants will work together to develop, plan and deliver a 10-15-minute presentation based on one chapter from the course textbook. The maximum number of group members is 5.

Using an excellent variety of presentation methods, participants will highlight key features and insights from their chosen chapter and relate them to practical application, personal stories and information from course material and texts.

The group will identify the chapter they will work on and provide an outline of the presentation one week prior to delivery. A limited amount of time will be provided to work on the presentation, but outside class meetings will be needed. You will be evaluated on your individual presentation using the Oral Presentation Rubric provided in this course outline.

Your presentation must include the following:

1. Present an outline of the key points of the chapter and explain how these key concepts apply to your chosen program. The outline should be posted at the front of the room during your presentation.
2. Group members should choose one chapter from the textbook and also formulate a topic they will present on, and they should also relate the topic to a real-life situation, such as workplace or societal event, for example, how to manage diversity in an organization in Calgary.
3. Group members should adopt any communication format they prefer, for example, poster presentations, PowerPoint Presentations, Prezi, video format, or a combination of the formats.

Final Reflective Project

Weight: 25%

This final project will enable you to deeply reflect on your group presentation experience, how it aided you in the development of professional communication skills and how it contributed to increased self-awareness.

You may guide your reflection using the points below:

Personal

- Your expectations at the start of the presentation
- Your contributions and experiences during the presentation
- How you spent time, including reflecting on useful vs. wasteful time
- The importance of this type of presentation in your field

Team

- The contribution of your team
- The collaboration within your team and your work together
- Your participation in your team
- The perception of the other team members' attitudes to the course and if that influenced your commitment and contribution
