Course Description:

This is an advanced grammar course that focuses on the common grammatical errors made by writers who are mastering essay writing skills. This will include, but is not limited to sentence fragments, misplaced and dangling modifiers, and faulty parallelism. Grammar will be studied and practiced in and out of the classroom. As well, the course will focus on the development of advanced writing skills. Students will be expected to complete a significant amount of reading and writing outside of the classroom to meet the requirements of the course. This is a 40 hour course.

Learning Outcomes:

As a result of active participation in these sessions, a student can expect to:

- Briefly review the verb tenses.
- BE ABLE TO DO THE FOLLOWING:
- Review and practice subordinate clauses: adverb, adjective, and noun clauses, and the reasons and occasions for using them.
- Recognize and employ gerunds and infinitives correctly.
- Recognize and appropriately use passive and active voice.
- Recognize selected grammatical patterns in authentic material.
- Demonstrate improved accuracy, fluency, and confidence in using advanced grammar structures.
- Continue to demonstrate the accurate use of present and past tense, progressive aspect and models in written work.
- Recognize and avoid unnecessary verb and person shifts in writing.
- Analyze and discuss selected grammatical structures at a more advanced level.
- Analyze and practice using certain grammatical structures for transitions and for coherence in short written pieces.
- Employ self-editing skills.

Course Format:

This course uses a variety of teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, experiential exercises, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The classroom provides you with a place where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in class discussions and take responsibility for your own learning. Be a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our classes will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you have a tendency to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the classroom as you work towards your goal.
