Course Description:

This course focuses on essay writing at the post-secondary level. Students will examine examples of good writing, do short summaries, participate in critical exchanges in an individual and group setting, and complete several short writing assignments covering a spectrum of styles and purposes. While this course provides some grammar review, students will be expected to be at least at a senior high school level of competency or equivalent in both grammar and composition.

Learning Outcomes:

As a result of active participation in these sessions, a student can expect to:

- Effectively demonstrate an effective understanding and application of the writing process
- Effectively analyze a variety of written text required for college and university courses
- Understand, select, paraphrase and write in response to a variety of audiences and purposes
- Apply the revision process and editing strategies to various forms of writing
- Demonstrate understanding of and the ability to write a summary
- Write an effective response in a critical analysis essay to meet college and university expectations and standards
- Demonstrate the ability to apply the research process and write a well-organized research paper, free of plagiarism
- Demonstrate effective use of argumentation in a piece of writing
- Demonstrate understanding and application of APA documentation
- Be able to demonstrate an effective understanding of English grammar and usage

Course Format:

This course uses a variety of teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, experiential exercises, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The classroom provides you with a place where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in class discussions and take responsibility for your own learning. Be a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our classes will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you have a tendency to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the classroom as you work towards your goal.

Appendix 1 Assignment Outlines

Note: You are expected to do all assignments, quizzes, and activities as outlined in order to meet the requirements of this course. If you do not do this, you will not pass the course.

1. Essay topics and handouts will be supplied by the facilitator where required.
2. ALL assignments handed in must be supported with citations in A.P.A. format using your Cites Handbook as a reference.
3. You must use ProQuest or Gale as your source for references. Please do not simply Google for anything on the Internet as this is not acceptable for post-secondary assignments in our programs.
4. This course outline has rubrics attached that will be used to evaluate your work. This will help you to set high goals and clarify the marking process.

MyWritingLab Activities Weight: 10%

Description: You will be assigned various MyWritingLab Activities to do for each day as you go along in your studies. Your facilitator will evaluate your participation and quality of work. Please be sure to do these as required.

Daily Summary Activity Due Date: End of each class from class 1 through 8 Weight: 10% (2.5% per summary assignment)

Students will conclude each of the classes with a daily summary exercise.

This summary is to relate to the day's topic/s that answers the following: "What did I learn? What do I need to know more about? What steps do I need to do to be successful in light of what I learned today?"

Be sure to specifically refer to what was discussed during the class. Write in a reflective journaling style and turn your answers into the facilitator for grading. The paper will have a minimum length of 250 words and contain insight into each of these three questions. N. B. These three questions are there to guide your answers to this assignment, and your facilitator may give you different questions per class, depending on the lessons of the class.

Answers are to be written in the last 30 minutes of the class. No answers will be accepted that were prepared prior. If you are absent from the Summary Activity, you will receive a "zero."

Critical Analysis Essay or Argumentative Essay Due Date: Class 8 Weight: 25%

Minimum of 1,000 words; Maximum of 1,200 words

Critical Analysis Essay

Description: Students will demonstrate the skills learned and practiced in critical exchanges to write their own critical analysis of another author's work. This assignment is an analysis of and a commentary on another piece of writing. It generally focuses on technique as well as on content. This essay has two major goals: to summarize a source's main idea and to respond to the source's main idea with reactions based on your synthesis. The facilitator will provide materials to use in the critical analysis.

Your essay will be structured according to the following:

- Introduction

- Body
 - Summary of source's main idea/s
 - Transition
 - Analysis: Evaluate the evidence; sufficient (enough evidence, examples), representative (large enough pool/sample), relevancy (accurate correlations), accuracy (claims are fairly qualified)
 - Transition
 - Response: Base comments on your own experience, prior knowledge, and opinions
- Conclusion
- Documentation

Within the body, you may choose from three basic patterns of organization: write all the summary paragraphs first, followed by the analysis portion; alternate between summary and analysis paragraphs so that each paragraph of summary is followed by a critique of the summarized information; or combine a summary and critique of each idea within each paragraph of the body.

OR

Argumentative Essay – Read your English 110 textbook Chapters 8 and 17 regarding Position Papers. Your topic must be approved by the facilitator.

Research Essay Due Date: Class 9 Weight: 25%

Description: You will write a research paper on a topic related to your chosen profession. Your facilitator may provide you with a topic/s.

Minimum of 1,200 words; maximum of 1,500 words

Content

Your research paper should demonstrate that you know how to conduct research and write an effective research paper. It must demonstrate your knowledge of how to correctly follow APA formatting and citation. Use your Cites Handbook to check that you are correctly citing sources. A good paper will have quotations, paraphrases and summaries of materials that were used to write the paper.

Sources

For this essay, you're expected to include at least four scholarly sources from ProQuest and/or Gale. If you wish to add additional sources, please ensure that they are reputable academic sources (see pp.392-394 in your text), not internet based sources such as Wikipedia. Do not plagiarize. If you plagiarize, you will receive a "0" on your paper.

Final Exam Due Date: Class 10 Weight: 30%

Description: Students will be required to take part in a Final Exam. Place and time to be provided.
