Intercultural Communication (COMM125)

Lecture 1

Course Outline

Semester Dates: April 17, 2023 to May 20, 2023

Please note that when a holiday falls during the week, your class will be rescheduled for the Friday of that week. Students are required to make arrangements to be present at the rescheduled class.

Facilitator:: Tiara Fernando

Email: tiara.fernando@columbia.ca

Class Time: Thursdays 5:30PM to 9:30PM and
Saturdays 12:30PM to 4:30PM

Room: COMM125 Microsoft Teams Site and
COMM125 Moodle Page

Credit: 3

Prerequisite: COMM115

Note: It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the information contained in the Course Outline and to clarify any areas of concern with the facilitator.

Course Description:

Successful, healthy, and productive intercultural relationships comprise a major part of human services work. This course focuses on building self-awareness, the intercultural communication process, and the development of professional communication skills with a variety of cultures.

Learning Outcomes:

As a result of active participation in these sessions, a student can expect to:

- Explore and evaluate the role of effective intercultural communication in establishing and maintaining effective intercultural relationships.
- Identify the impact of globalization upon a rapidly changing North American demographic.
- Identify a personal communication style and develop an awareness of the importance of value clarification in intercultural communication.
- Employ intercultural communications skills in a professional manner in the human services industry.
- Synthesize the information that causes conflict between cultures
- Explore how the verbal dimension of communication reflects cultural values and perspectives and impacts on communication with Canadian society.

Course Format:

This 40 hour remote course uses a variety of online teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, experiential exercises, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The online classroom provides you with a place where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in online class discussions in addition to taking responsibility for your own learning. The course expects you to be a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our synchronous and asynchronous class activities will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you have a tendency to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the online classroom as you work towards your goal.

Required Textbooks and Equipment:

Martin, J.N. & Nakayama, T.K. (2018). Intercultural communication in contexts, 8th edition. New York, NY: McGraw-Hill Education.

Instructor handouts.

Recommended Readings and Resources:

Students may access Google Scholar.

Homework Assignment Due for the First Class:

- Read Chapters 1 and 2 in the text, Intercultural communication in contexts, (seventh edition)
- Read this course outline and prepare to discuss in class.
- Prepare to write a test on the assigned reading.

Evaluation - Assessment of Student Performance:

The final grade in the course will be based on the following elements. Wherever possible facilitators will use rubrics to assess your performance and offer feedback.

Title of Assignment/Examination	Due Date	Weight
Daily Tests	Classes 2 through 10	20%
Asynchronous Activities	Classes 4, 6 & 8	10%
Forum Responses	Classes 2 & 6	20%
Personal Reflective Paper	Class 8	25%
Final Project <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Oral Live Presentation 	Class 10	25%

Please note that all homework and assignments are due at 11:59PM on the due date

Grading:

Grades for each component will be added together at the end of the semester. The final total will be translated to the Columbia College's 4.0 grading scale as follows:

Marking and Grading Conversion:

Description	Letter Grade	Grade Points	Percentage Scale
Excellent	A+	4.0	100	95
	A	4.0	94	90
	A-	3.7	89	85
Good	B+	3.3	84	80
	B	3.0	79	75
	B-	2.7	74	70
Satisfactory	C+	2.3	69	65
	C	2.0	64	60
	C-	1.7	59	55
Poor	D	1.0	54	50
Failure	F	0.0	49	0

Please note that to pass this course you must earn at least a "C+" (a minimal pass).

Mastery Learning Activities:

Should a student not attain the 70% level on Daily Tests (test must be attempted), Mastery Learning Activities will be provided to allow for the opportunity for students to showcase their understanding of material studied. Mastery Learning Activities are posted in the class Team and will close by the end of the semester. Each activity will focus on that week's material studied and specifically where the passing rate was not achieved.

Submission and Completion of Assignments:

You are expected to submit assignments on the due date. Any late assignments may be assessed a marking penalty of 5% per day. If you are unable to submit an assignment on the due date, you must request an extension before the due date by filling out an Application for Assignment Extension form (SSPP-F012) that is to be submitted to the Department Chair for approval. This form is available on Columbia's website, Bldg. 802 – Main Office and from Department Chairs.

Attendance Requirements:

Columbia College believes that students are committed to their program and learning experiences. However, it is understood that there are times when students may be absent. Any absences can be viewed as a potentially serious disruption of the learning process and necessary achievement of the learning objectives. Being late is also considered unacceptable as it interferes with the learning opportunities of others. Unavoidable absences or lateness must be reported to the course facilitator in advance. Please refer to Columbia College's Attendance Policy and Regulations (ADM-P151) for detailed information on Attendance Requirements.

Academic Integrity:

Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from Columbia College.

There is no tolerance for academic dishonesty and any student caught plagiarizing is subject to serious sanctions as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct Policy (ADM-P229). Students are encouraged to familiarize themselves with this policy and avoid any behavior that could possibly be seen as cheating, plagiarizing, misrepresenting, or putting into question the integrity of one's academic work.

Student Conduct:

It is the responsibility of each student to uphold the expectations and responsibilities outlined in the Student Code of Conduct Policy (ADM-P229), Columbia's Commitment to Human Rights and Diversity Policy (ADM-P029), and any additional requirements established by your program.

Generally, each student will:

- be respectful and courteous toward others;
- demonstrate appropriate and supportive communication skills, and coach, assist, advise and otherwise support other students in their studies;
- manage any personal stress and conflict in a positive and resourceful manner, and assist others to do the same;
- be dressed in a manner appropriate for their workplace or learning environment, as established by the program;
- conduct themselves in a professional manner with regard to their communication with others and their behavior in class;
- conduct themselves with academic integrity in all of their learning activities, tests, exams, and assignments
- keep up with day-to-day classroom and course expectations.

Important Dates:

Description	Date
Last to add/drop courses	5 school operating days from the start of the semester OR before the third scheduled class, whichever is greater
Last day to withdraw without academic penalty	50% or less of the semester has been completed

Appeals:

Please refer to the Student Appeal Policy (ADM-P177).

Students with Temporary or Permanent Disabilities or Medical Conditions:

Students with temporary or permanent disabilities or medical conditions may apply for accommodations. To be considered for an accommodation, a student must register with Columbia College's Accessibility Services by making an appointment with an Accessibility Services Advisor – Main Office – Bldg. 802 or emailing accessibilityservices@columbia.ab.ca. The Department Chair or facilitator is not able to provide you with any accommodations without you taking this step. Please refer to Columbia College's website to review the Student Accommodation Policy (ADM-P188) and the Student Guide to Accessibility Services Handbook (SSCM-001).

Student Support:

Students should be aware that Life Coaching, Career and Accessibility Services, and Student Support Services (i.e. tutoring, academic strategists, etc.) are provided by Columbia College. Inquire how to request these services at the Main Office in building 802. It is the student's responsibility to discuss their specific learning needs with the appropriate service provider.

Class Schedule/Overview:

Please note that this schedule is subject to change. Any changes or cancellations will be emailed to you. It is your responsibility to check your Columbia College email address on a daily basis for any messages from the Department Chair/designate, facilitator or College Administration. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the information contained in the Course Outline and to clarify any areas of concern with the facilitator.

Appendix 1 Assignment Outlines.

Please note: Students must complete all assignments, tests, and final projects in order to pass this course.

Daily Tests

Due Date: Each class from classes 1 through 10.

Weight: 20%

Students will be expected to read the assigned chapters in the text and other assigned readings and be prepared to write a graded test based on these reading assignments.

All tests are:

- Available on Moodle from 8:30 AM to 11:59 PM on the day of the class.
- There will only be one attempt on all Daily Tests.
- There will be a 30-minute time-limit (unless otherwise noted in Moodle).

Asynchronous Activities

Due Date: 4, 6 & 8

Weight: 10%

Asynchronous activities are those that take place outside of the live lecture/class time. They are intended to build upon critical thinking skills based on material connect to or assigned for that day. Activities are assigned at the conclusion of a live lecture with explicit directions and completion dates. Facilitator support is available should there be any queries.

Asynchronous activities may include but are not limited to:

- Completion of Worksheet/problems- independent and/or collaborative
- Case study review and assessment
- Video responses
- Microsoft Forms
- Microsoft Padlet

Discussion Forums

Due Date: Classes 2 & 6

Weight: 20%

Each student will be required to participate in online discussion forum questions throughout the course. These discussion forums questions can be accessed from the Course Moodle website. The facilitator will post questions relating to the next class topic for discussion. In addition, each student should respond thoughtfully at least twice to their classmates in their discussion groups. Responses must be at least 250 words to receive a grade. Students will be evaluated according to the "Discussion Forum Rubric attached."

Reflective Paper

Due Date: Class 8

Weight: 25%

Each student will write a personal response reflective paper that investigates and identifies the essential ingredients in communicating successfully as a professional. Introspective means self-awareness and self-examination, being aware of your own perceptions, thoughts and feelings towards intercultural communication. This personal paper requires self-reflection. The assignment will be marked using the Reflective Writing Response Marking Rubric contained in this course outline. You may write this paper in the first person.

Your reflective paper can be from the following list or approved in writing from the facilitator:

- In what ways might the study of intercultural communication be helpful in understanding the ethical issues involved in intercultural interaction?
- How might self-reflexivity improve intercultural communication?
- What are some of the contributions to the study of intercultural communication made by anthropologists and how will they impact your career?
- At what stage in the identity development model are you? Why? What experiences have facilitated or hindered your own identity?
- How might hidden histories affect intercultural interactions?

Writing Assignment Expectations:

- Objective: The objectives of the writing assignment is to critically apply concepts, ideas, and procedures to facilitate higher-level learning. The assignment is designed so students can demonstrate depth of knowledge related to the course content.
- Focus: Each assignment is designed to apply knowledge from the chapters and class discussions.
- Format: All assignments will be double-spaced. Do not include title pages. Include your name at the top of each page. A minimum of one-inch margins on each side. 12-point Times New Roman font is preferred. Each assignment should have a minimum length of 500 words but is not to exceed 750 words. Students will be evaluated according to the attached rubric: Reflective Writing Response Marking Rubric.

How to avoid plagiarism

- The simplest way to avoid plagiarism is to reference any sources properly (using both in-text, parenthetical citations in the body of your assignment and a 'References' page at the end). While it is commonplace to build upon the knowledge of others, it is necessary to clearly state the sources and foundations of that knowledge. Please refer to your ENGL110 Textbook.

Final Project- Oral Presentation

Due: Class 10

Weight: 25%

Students are required pick one chapter from the text, to reflect on and summarize their findings, and then to share how the learnings from this chapter relate to their professional life.

Students will develop, plan and deliver a 5-7-minute presentation based on one chapter from the course textbook. Using an excellent variety of presentation methods, participants will highlight key features and insights from their chosen chapter and relate them to practical application, personal stories and information from course material and texts.

The group will identify the chapter they will work on and provide an outline of the presentation to the facilitator one week prior to delivery. You will be evaluated on your individual presentation using the Oral Presentation Rubric provided in this course outline.

Your presentation must include the following:

1. Present an outline of the key points of the chapter and explain how these key concepts apply to your chosen program. The outline should be shared with the facilitator on the day of Class 9 (or prior) by 11:59 p.m.
2. Group members are to choose one chapter from the textbook and also formulate a topic they will present on, and they should also relate the topic to a real-life situation, such as workplace or societal event, for example, how to manage diversity in an organization in Calgary.
3. Students should adopt any communication format they prefer, for example, PowerPoint Presentations, Prezi, video format, or a combination of the formats. The method of delivery will be Microsoft Teams- students are expected to create time on their own outside of class time to prepare for this project. Presentations are "recorded" and submitted to Class 10.
4. All materials (presentations/references) must be submitted to Microsoft Teams Class 10 Final Project Assignment.

How to avoid plagiarism

- The simplest way to avoid plagiarism is to reference any sources properly (using both in-text, parenthetical citations in the body of your assignment and a 'References' page at the end). While it is commonplace to build upon the knowledge of others, it is necessary to clearly state the sources and foundations of that knowledge. Please refer to your ENGL110 Textbook.
