Course Description:

This course examines children and youth at risk in Canada. The course will explore issues facing this population, such as youth crime, substance abuse, schooling, family problems, peer pressure, alcoholism, and poverty. Legal system and community implications, youth justice practice and solutions to delinquency problems will also be addressed. Special emphasis will be assigned to various roles, prevention strategies, interventions, knowledge, and skills human services professionals need when dealing with youth at risk.

Learning Outcomes:

As a result of active participation in these sessions, a student can expect to:

- Describe and explain the historical traditions and philosophy of youth justice.
- Explain the biological, psychological, and sociological factors of why juveniles make alternative choices.
- Describe what youth crime "looks like".
- Investigate Trauma-Informed justice.
- Understanding collective trauma, colonialism, and patriarchy
- Understand and investigate restorative justice.
- Compare and contrast the stages of the youth justice system and the roles of the various players, and how their roles differ substantially from the adult system.
- Critically examine and discuss the recommendations for changes in the Youth Justice System.

Course Format:

This 45-hour remote course uses a variety of online teaching/learning methods including discussion, personal reflection, student presentations, role-plays, group activities and especially case studies. Our faculty aims to create a learning environment where the learner is actively engaged in inquiry, critical thinking and problem solving. The online classroom provides you with a space where you can learn with and from others in a cooperative and collaborative manner.

You are expected to take a very active part in online class discussions and activities in addition to taking responsibility for your own learning while being a positive and co-operative team member. Columbia College uses a facilitation model of instruction where the facilitator's role is to facilitate your learning. The expectation is that you will come to the online class prepared with pre-class homework completed. Your facilitator will engage you in activities that are based on your completed homework and readings. Your enthusiastic and positive approach in the online classroom will create an atmosphere that will help every student develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that are needed for success.

How you conduct yourself in our classes will, to a large extent, mirror your conduct in society and your future work site. For example, if you tend to ask questions, challenge the ideas of others in a respectful manner, draw out the best from your colleagues, and encourage both group development and task accomplishment in this class, it is likely you will do the same at work. A high level of student involvement and developing professionalism is expected in the classroom as you work towards your goal.

- Focus: Each assignment is designed to apply knowledge from the chapters and class discussions.
- Format: All assignments will be double-spaced. Do not include title pages. A minimum of one-inch margins on each side. 12-point Calibri font is preferred. Each assignment should have a minimum length of 500 words but is not to exceed 750 words. Students will be evaluated according to Personal Response Rubric.

How to avoid plagiarism?

The simplest way to avoid plagiarism is to reference any source properly (using both in-text, parenthetical citations in the body of your assignment and a “References” page at the end. While it is commonplace to build upon the knowledge of others, it is necessary to clearly state the sources and foundations of that knowledge. Referencing must conform to the APA referencing formats outlined in your ENGL110-1 texts (Tab 7).

- Each member will be graded on the Oral Presentation Rubric independently- this includes non-verbal communication so ensure you have a laptop camera and microphone that works.
- Each person will be responsible for submitting a Reflective Writing submission on how this assignment has impacted their perspective of youth justice and reconciliation.

Task:

- Explore a local youth organization/program that addresses at-risk youth issues we have discussed in HSPD281 and share with your peers the impact of its presence in Calgary.
- The goal is to not only showcase a local youth organization/program but, to share the impact it has on the community of Calgary. This will take some research and teamwork as there are some organizations with a great deal of information but some that may not be suitable for a case study like this. It is imperative you not simply share information, rather your group will need to focus on its impact on the community (both short and long term).
- Things to consider:
 - What created the demand for this service and is it a short/long-term need?
 - What would the clients do without the support it provides?
 - How has it distinguished itself from other organizations- is it the only one of its kind?
 - Where do they receive funding from?
 - How strong the organization/program is at demystifying at-risk youth stigmas?
 - How does it contribute to empowering youth?
 - How does the program foster resiliency?

- What do you see the future holding for this organization/program?
- Do they have a cultural/religious component to their delivery? If so, what does this provide that others do not?

Assignment Expectations:

- Objective: The objective of this writing assignment is to reflect and apply concepts, ideas, and procedures to facilitate higher level learning. The assignment is designed so students can demonstrate the depth of knowledge related to the course content.
- Focus: This assignment is designed to apply knowledge from the chapters and class discussions.
- Format: Use Office365 or other file sharing method to work on it "live". Present your findings in a format that you feel comfortable using but would advise you create a Microsoft Teams Meeting and invite all participants (including facilitator) to record and distribute. Use the skills acquired through INTE125 and gained throughout course.
- Reflective writing will be double-spaced. Do not include title pages. Include your name at the top of each page. A minimum of one-inch margins on each side. 12-point Times New Roman font is preferred. Each assignment should have a minimum length of 250 words but is not to exceed 500 words.
- Students will be evaluated according to the attached rubric: Oral Presentation Rubric and the Reflective Writing Rubric
